Austin wants to be sheriff

Look out Tom Tramel, there may be a future sheriff in town.

Five-year-old George Jarvis Austin attends the Kindergarten Center and he wants to be a police officer or a sheriff when he grows up.

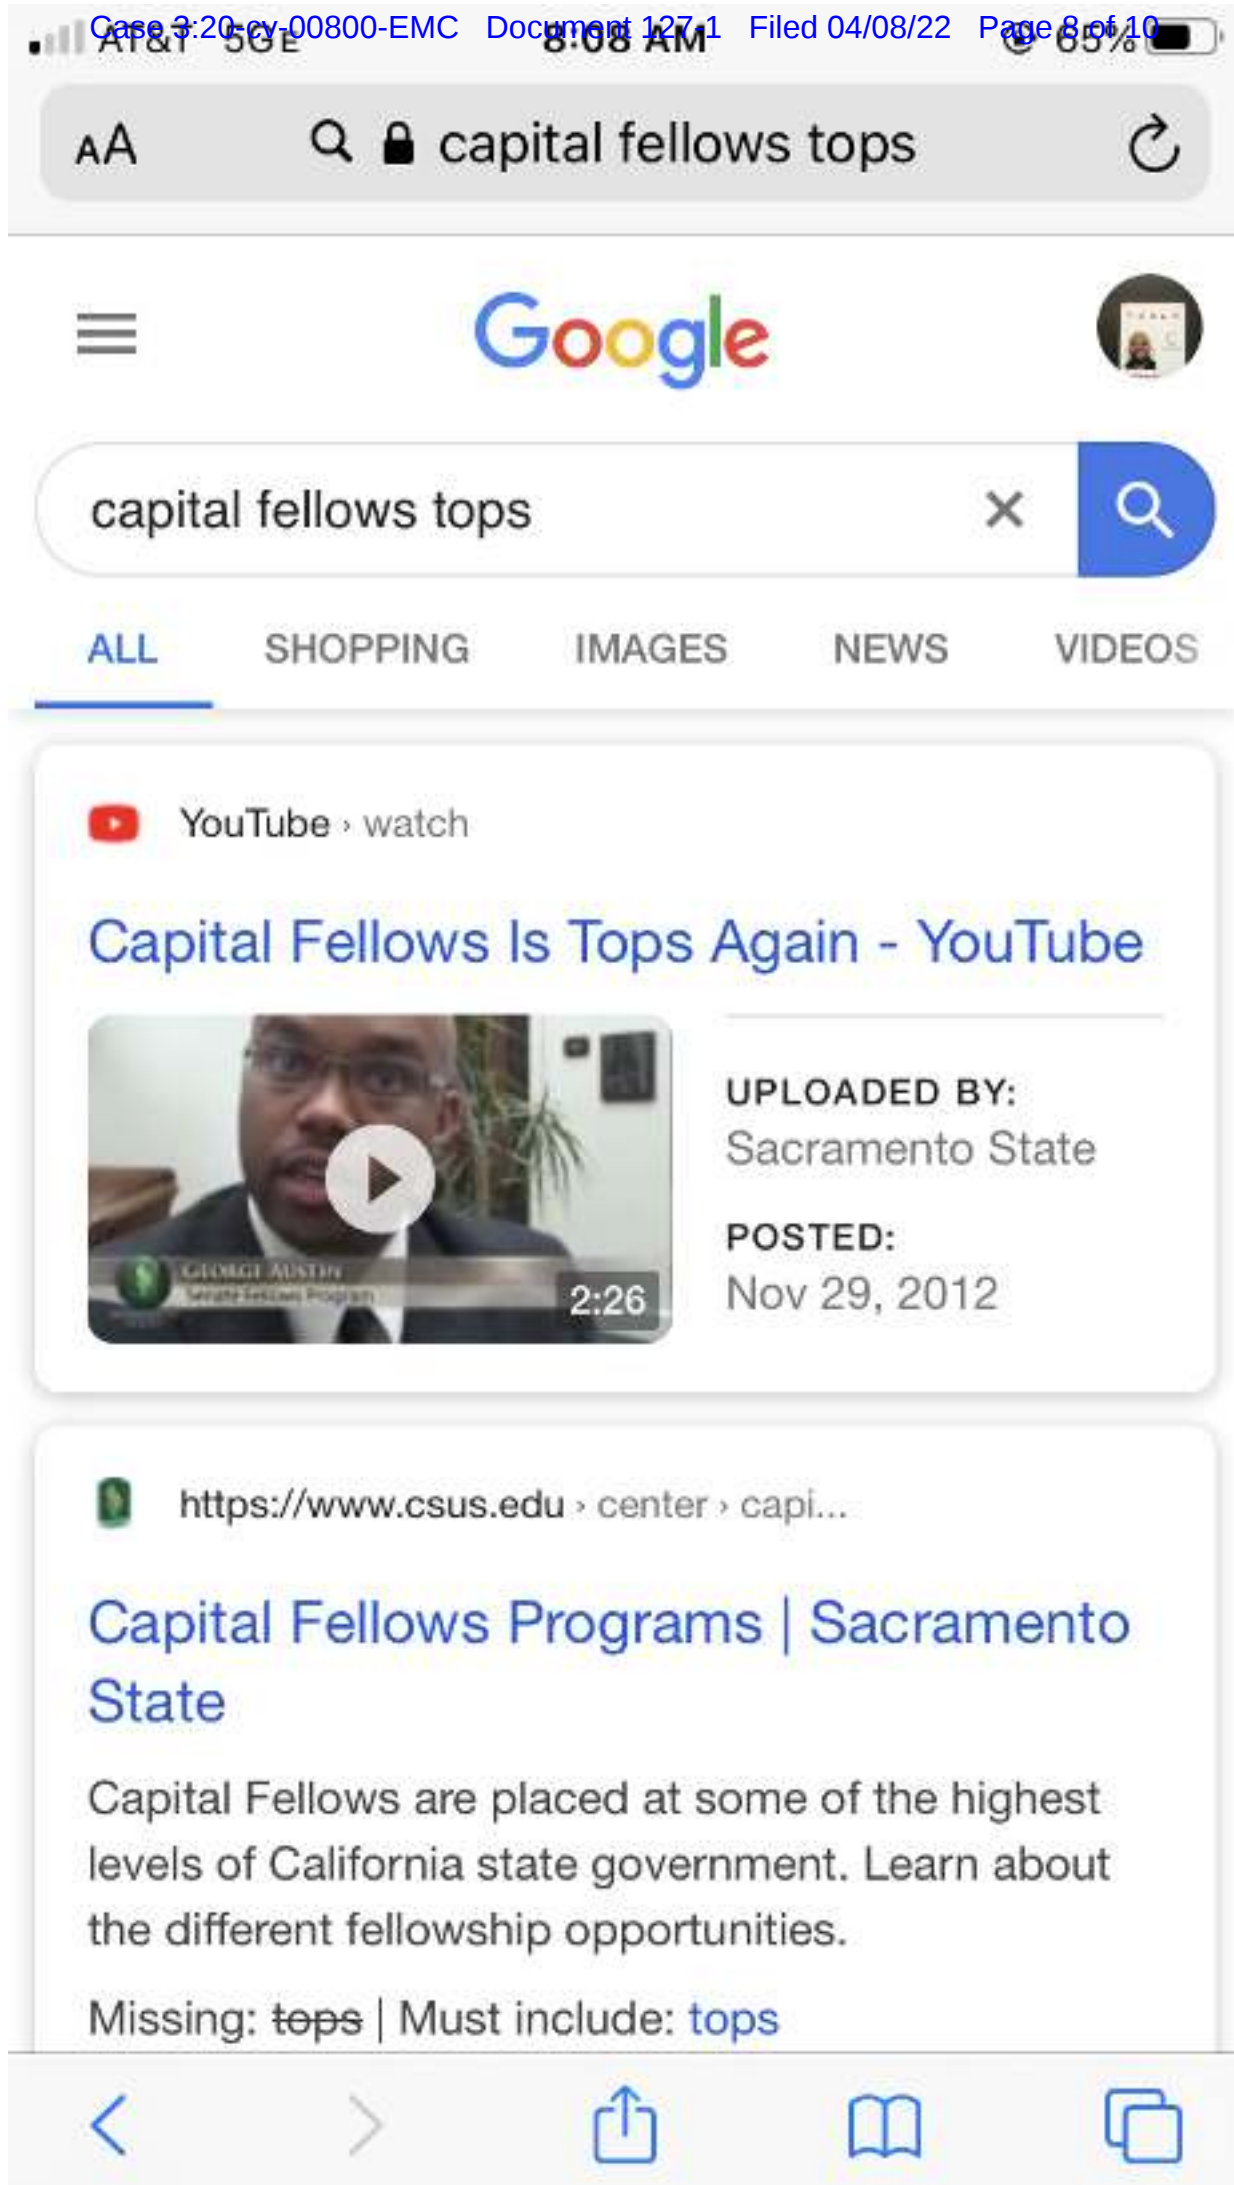

Son of Charlotte Hall-Austin, George has begun his school career with a positive attitude. "George is an enthusiastic learner and he is a well-liked and caring person," says one of his teachers.

His interests include T-ball and books, especially the Berenstain Bears series.

According to Principal Earl Watts, "George is a very smart child. He is totally involved in all classroom activities and loves school. With George's ability, I think he can accomplish his goals in life."
